

Join the San Francisco Education Fund YOUNG LEADERS COUNCIL

The San Francisco Education Fund Young Leaders Council (YLC) is a cohort of community members under 40 who are passionate about supporting youth and families in San Francisco and committed to bringing equitable access to education for every one of the city's 50,000 public school students. The YLC brings awareness to the Ed Fund's mission and advances its efforts in the areas of fundraising and community engagement.

Goals: The Ed Fund Young Leaders Council sets out to...

- Raise visibility of the Ed Fund's work and events, namely, the Back-to-School Gala in the Fall.
- Develop a broader and more diverse base of funders for the Ed Fund by leveraging existing connections in the SF Bay Area.

Key Priorities:

- Be part of planning and hosting the annual Back-to-School Gala.
- Promote Ed Fund events and campaigns.
- Inspire event attendance and charitable giving from professional and personal networks.
- Help secure corporate sponsorships for Ed Fund events.
- Support corporate and donor engagement with thank-you cards, calls, etc.
- Connect the Ed Fund to people and companies that will advance our mission.

Time Commitment & Expectations:

- Estimated time commitment of 3-5 hours/month for a minimum of two years.
- Attend one YLC meeting per month, with potential of joining committee meetings every other month.
- Participate in the Ed Fund Back-to-School Gala.

Benefits:

- Make a positive impact on public education in San Francisco.
- Contribute to the strategic vision of a nonprofit organization.
- Connect professionally with other leaders in the community who are passionate about bringing equitable access to excellent education in San Francisco.
- Gain valuable professional skills while collaborating on meaningful projects in your community.

Qualifications:

- Under 40 years of age
- Passion for equitable access to education
